

Denver Area Activities

LoDo

Short for Lower Downtown, this 29-block section of trendy bars, restaurants and shops also contains preserved buildings from the city's original settlement. For more information, visit <http://www.lodo.org/>

Downtown Aquarium

The Downtown Aquarium is an Association of Zoo and Aquarium facility that also has a full service restaurant with a 150,000 gallon reef tank. For more information, visit http://www.aquariumrestaurants.com/downtownaquariumdenver/flash_content/index.html

Larimer Square

Part of the first downtown area of Denver, this locale has been restored as a trendy shopping area. For more information, visit <http://www.larimersquare.com/>

Denver Zoo

This zoo is home to more than 4000 animals representing over 700 species. Features include: Tropical Discovery, a large indoor rainforest featuring both marine and freshwater aquariums. For more information, visit <http://www.denverzoo.org/>

Denver Museum of Nature & Science

Better understand the universe, nature and human cultures by visiting a number of permanent exhibits such as "Hall of Life," "Prehistoric Journey" and "Egyptian Mummies." The museum has inexpensive packages for 2-3 different attractions that would make great day tours. For more information, visit <http://www.dmns.org/>

The United States Mint

Reservations are required for all tours of the United States Mint at Denver. Reservations can be scheduled through http://www.usmint.gov/mint_tours/index.cfm?flash=yes&action=StartReservation

All United States Mint tours are free of charge. Guided tours start on the hour and are available from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Monday through Friday (excluding federal holidays). We encourage you to submit your request as early as possible since a limited number of tours are available. General tour information is available at (303) 405-4761.

Red Rocks Park and Amphitheatre

Red Rocks Amphitheatre is located in Red Rocks Park near Morrison, Colorado, 15 miles west of Denver. For more information, visit <http://www.redrocksonline.com/>

Buffalo Bill Cody's Museum and Grave

Visit the one, and the only, grave of William F. "Buffalo Bill" Cody. By his request, Buffalo Bill was buried on Lookout Mountain in Golden, CO in 1917, overlooking the Great Plains and the Rockies. Feel the breezes from the high peaks of the Continental Divide, smell the Ponderosa Pines, and watch the mountain wildlife, all just 30 minutes from downtown Denver. For more information, visit <http://www.buffalobill.org/>

Lariat Trail

One of the most admired engineering feats of the world is a switchback road that rises from Golden to Lookout Mountain. The Lariat Trail, now known as Lookout Mountain Road, begins west of 6th Avenue at 19th Street in Golden. It zig-zags for 4.6 road miles, rising 2,000 feet to Buffalo Bill's Grave and Museum. The scenic drive has 56 perfectly-banked curves, including seven hair-pins. For more information, visit <http://www.citymtnviews.com/Lariat.php4>

Miller Coors Brewery

The Golden operation, founded by Adolph Coors in 1873, is today the largest single-site brewery in the world. Visitors can tour the brewery to see the brewhouse, malthouse and packaging complex to view firsthand how more than 100 work teams reward lovers of great beer through their labors. The free tours start at the corner of 13th and Ford streets in Golden, and they conclude with samples of our fine products (if you're 21 or older with a valid ID) in our hospitality lounge and shopping in the Coors & Co. gift shop. Tour hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mountain Time, Thursday through Monday, Sundays, noon – 4 p.m. Tours and the gift shop are closed Tuesdays, Wednesdays and major holidays. Call 866-812-2337 for more information and extended summer hours. <https://www.millercoors.com/who-we-are/locations.aspx#Golden>

The Shops at Northfield Stapleton

The hotel shuttle provides transportation to the shops. For more information, visit <http://www.northfieldstapleton.com/>

Denver's Firefighter's Museum

The museum is located at 1326 Tremont Place in downtown Denver. For more information, visit <http://www.denverfirefightersmuseum.org/>

Molly Brown House Museum

The long-time home of Titanic's most famous survivor. Today, you can visit the Brown's opulent 1889 home, designed by architect William Lang. You'll also hear the fascinating tales of Molly Brown's incredible life, from instant mining-town wealth, to labor reform and the stages of New York. For more information, visit <http://www.mollybrown.org/>