Transportation and Parking*

Airport

The Crowne Plaza is 13 miles north of McGhee Tyson Airport (TYS) in Knoxville. TYS is serviced by many carriers including Allegiant Air, American Airlines, Delta Air Lines, Frontier Airlines and United Airlines.

Ground Transportation*

The conference hotel does not offer an airport shuttle. We highly encourage you to make ground transportation reservations in advance to guarantee transportation once you arrive at the airport. Long waits can occur if traveling without previously made ground transportation arrangements.

Taxi

Upon exit from the Baggage Claim area, proceed to the Ground Transportation Center in front of the terminal building. The average fare for a taxicab between airport and downtown is less than $35.00. Below is a link to an alphabetical list of taxi companies currently licensed to do business at the airport. Click on taxis after clicking on the link. <https://flyknoxville.com/ground-transportation/>

Rideshare or Transportation Network Provider (Uber, Lyft, etc.)

The ridesharing pick-up spot for Uber and Lyft is on the terminal building's lowest level. The pick-up point is straight to the right of the building. Directional signs are available to help passengers find their ridesharing car.

Hotel Parking*

The Crowne Plaza offers self-parking for a $10.00 fee in their well-lit garage. Oversized vehicles must contact the hotel 2 business days prior to arrival to arrange street parking behind the hotel from the city for $25 minimum.

Getting Around

Once at the Crowne Plaza, you will be within walking distance to the Market Square, Gay Street, and Old City neighborhoods with access to countless shops, restaurants, and bars.

Knoxville is often described as a hidden gem. First time visitors are typically amazed by all this city has to offer. Very few places offer the opportunity to experience live music, culture, outdoor adventure, eclectic shopping, and highly acclaimed cuisine in one unique location.

Trolleys

Free Trolley Rides via the Knoxville Area Transit, (KAT). The orange line trolley takes you to the University of Tennessee and to downtown Knoxville. The green line trolley takes you to the Old City and Gay Street. The blue line trolley takes you to Knoxville Station, The Civic Coliseum, and waterfront pathway. <https://katbus.com/178/Free-Trolley>

Buses

Knoxville Area Transit's (KAT) Fixed Route service provides quality transportation throughout the City of Knoxville. <https://katbus.com/172/Bus-Routes>

Offsite Group Activities

Monday, August 7, at 5:30 PM

Five Thirty Lounge

530 S Gay Street on the rooftop of the Hyatt Place Hotel
Kick off your Monday evening at this centralized meeting place. We suggest you meet here and network with healthcare support team members from across the country. Unwind, enjoy the view, and grab a drink or a small bite. Guaranteed to recharge you for the rest of your evening!

Tuesday, August 8, from 6:00-8:30 PM

Volunteer Princess Sunset Dinner Cruise

Experience an unparalleled view of Knoxville on a fantastic Sunset Dinner Cruise on a 132-passenger yacht. Enjoy a two-hour cruise around Knoxville and indulge in a three-course meal featuring fresh ingredients.

Boarding: 6:00 p.m. Cruising: 6:30 – 8:30 p.m.

956 Volunteer Landing Lane, Knoxville, TN 37915

The Volunteer Landing Dock is approximately a mile from the Crowne Plaza. Attendees must arrange their own transportation to and from the dock whether that be walking, driving, ride share, or public transportation.

Parking is located to the left-hand side of Ruth's Chris Steakhouse under the overpass in spots labeled "Volunteer Landing Marina" or "Adventure Center." Once you have parked, simply walk past Ruth's Chris onto the cement walkway to the right-hand side of the building. Keep left at the fork, and you will see the yacht shortly thereafter! Guests who require handicapped parking may park in the designated handicapped spots at Ruth's Chris Steakhouse.

The dress code is smart casual attire. We recommend bringing along a light jacket or wrap as it may get breezy on board. Cruise sails rain or shine.

The Sunset Dinner Cruise menu features something appealing for everyone! Dual Entrée Beef Tenderloin and Oven Roasted Chicken served w/ Garden Salad, Rolls w/ butter, Mashed Potatoes, Mixed Vegetables and New York Style Cheesecake. Water and Lemonade included. Cash Bar.

Fee: $60.00 per person includes cruise, dinner, tax, and tip.

Presenters and Topics

“Ambiguity” presented by Dr. Rumay Alexander

Learning Objectives:

1. Establish the need to "skate to where the puck will be" and stay current.
2. Define, explore, and analyze concepts of ambiguity, inclusive excellence, stereotypes, and micro/macro aggressions.
3. Guide through facilitated conversation, belonging and inclusion principles and acts of living out the mission and values of the workplace as Health Unit Coordinators.

G. Rumay Alexander, EdD, RN, FAAN, noted presenter and consultant, is currently a professor in the School of Nursing, Assistant Dean of Relational Excellence at the Adams School of Dentistry and formerly the Associate Vice -Chancellor for Diversity and Inclusion/ Chief Diversity Officer of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. At the end of 2019, she completed her presidency of the National League for Nursing, the national voice for nursing education which has over 40,000 nurse educators and 1200 schools of nursing.

In February of 2021, she became the American Nurses Association's Scholar-In-Residence and advises the National Commission to Address Racism in Nursing. She most recently was appointed to The LeapFrog Group Board. The Leapfrog Group is a nonprofit watchdog organization that serves as a voice for health care consumers and purchasers, using their collective influence to foster positive change in U.S. health care. Leapfrog is the nation's premier advocate of transparency in health care—collecting, analyzing, and disseminating data to inform value-based purchasing and improved decision-making.

As one of nursing's prominent thought leaders, guiding individuals in academic, corporate, health care and religious organizations in the exploration of marginalizing processes and lived experiences of difference, her expertise has and continues to be frequently sought. She has been appointed to several transformative healthcare initiatives addressing diversity, equity and inclusion including the Commission of Workforce for Hospitals and Health Systems of the American Hospital Association (over 500,000 copies of the report have been distributed nationally and internationally), the Tri-Council of Nursing, and the National Quality Forum's steering committee which developed the first national voluntary consensus standards for nursing-sensitive care. As the Senior Vice President for Clinical and Professional Services at the Tennessee Hospital Association and their first vice president of color for 2 decades, she designed and executed one of the nation's first minority health administrators' program, Agenda 21, which exists to this day. As a result, over 250 minority health care executives are serving and stewarding healthcare in the nation. Her passion for equity of opportunity and penchant for holding courageous dialogues to steward and promoting human flourishing is evident in all her encounters and characteristically describes her as a prophetic and caring leader.

She holds a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the University of Tennessee - Knoxville, a Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) and Family Nurse Practitioner from Vanderbilt University and an EdD (Doctorate) in Education, Administration and Supervision from Tennessee State University.

“Legal Topics for the Health Unit Coordinator” presented by Cathy Shuck

Sarah is also a member of the Association of Nursing Professional Development.

“From Fragile to Agile: Communicating with Ease” presented by Jenni Bates, Ed.D.

Learning Objectives:

The ability to communicate effectively is an essential skill for successfully working as part of a team. To be an effective communicator, we must understand our own preferences and be able to discern the preferences of others. During this session, we will use a quick assessment to uncover our own behavioral style and learn a technique to improve our understanding of the styles of others. We will explore a model that fosters agile communication by leveraging our strengths while accounting for the needs of others.

Jenni is the Leadership Development Consultant at East Tennessee Children's Hospital. Jenni received her Doctor of Education, Executive Leadership, from Lincoln Memorial University. Jenni’s dissertation was “Patient Survey Impact Upon Hospital Administrators Servant Leadership Style-A Collective Case Study”. Jenni wrote, “Jenni’s Story: When a Tragedy Hits Home, Jenni Discovers Her Conversation Skills Do More Than Just Resolve Conflict” and her article was selected for publication and a scholarship award by Vital Smarts. In her spare time, Jenni is very involved with hockey and serves as the lead parent representative for Nashville Junior Predators Girls’ U19 Hockey.

“IT Downtime Preparedness and Lessons Learned from Real Events and Cybersecurity” presented by Christy Cooper, RN, MSN, CEN, CPEN, EMT-P and Rick Simpson, MSHA, LPhT

Learning Objectives:

1. Discuss the pivotal role that an H.U.C. plays in the preparedness and response to an IT Downtime event.
2. Identify common gaps in IT Downtime Planning.
3. Discuss mitigation strategies for gaps in Downtime Preparedness.

In Christy’s role as Director of Emergency Services at East Tennessee Children’s Hospital, she is responsible for Emergency Preparedness for her facility’s 152 licensed beds. Christy has many accomplishments including opening the facility’s Transfer Center to enhance patient throughput and ease of access into the system, completing a 12-million-dollar ED renovation project, assisting with the Development of an ED Pain Card Program, designing and implementing a change to an evidenced-based 5-tier standardized triage system.

Christy teaches the Emergency Nursing Pediatric Course (ENPC), Pediatric Advanced Life Support (PALS), Pediatric Education for Pre-hospital Professionals (PEPP), Emergency Pediatric Course (EPC), and Concepts of Terrorism and Emergency Preparedness. She has presented on Preparedness at many national and regional conferences.

In Rick's role as Director of Information Technology, he is responsible for overall information management, technology and the coordination of information needs in support of the operational strategic plans for the organization. Provides technology vision and leadership for developing and implementing information technology (IT) initiatives that improve cost effectiveness, health care service quality, and business development in a constantly changing, competitive industry. Rick has many accomplishments including being a licensed Pharmacy Technician, migrating the hospital to a top ranked CMS approved EMR, migrating the hospital to a top ranked EPR, opening the facility's Urgent Care facilities enhancing patient throughput and ease of access to the system and decrease Emergency Room visits, implementing the first Telehealth/Virtual Strategy program for the organization, and supporting the technology behind all off-site locations. Rick has hosted Alder Hey Children's Hospital from Liverpool, England and Clatterbridge Hospital from Birkenhead, England. Rick has presented at MUSE, has several publications with the Dental Research Symposium, Proxim, TechTarget, and the University of Tennessee Knoxville

“Care Coordination” presented by Kathy Fowler, MSSW, LCSW

Kathy is the Director of Care Coordination at East Tennessee Children's Hospital.

“Opening Our Professional Ranks: Inclusion of Our Colleagues” presented by Lee-Ellen Dunaway Hall, BA, AOS, CHUC

Learning Objectives:

1. Define the traditional clinical supportive roles.
2. Discuss the similarities between the various clinical supportive roles.
3. Discuss the ways all clinical supportive roles can be incorporated in the medical setting.
4. Discuss the ways all clinical supportive roles can be incorporated in professional organizations, such as NAHUC.

Lee-Ellen Dunaway Hall, BS, CST, CHUC is in her 44th year as a healthcare professional with Centra Health in Lynchburg, Virginia. Currently, Lee is the supervisor of the hospital staffing, scheduling and timekeeping department, where, with the help of a dedicated staff, she is making great changes that will benefit her staff, hospital personnel and most importantly, patients. She has served on the Virginia Commonwealth State Assembly of Surgical Technologists as a treasurer and board member. Her degree in surgical technology led her to certification in the field and a six-year teaching career which included teaching courses in medical law and ethics. She is a certified health unit coordinator, which is where her heart will always be. Education and promoting certification are top goals for Lee! She serves on the NAHUC publication committee and is the author of several articles published in The Coordinator. She is most proud of being a long time NAHUC member and hopes to continue far into the future!

“Pardon the Interruption: Errors, Stress, and Burnout - Oh My!” presented by Tammy Van Dyk, MBA, MSN, RN, CENP

Learning Objectives:

1. Describe how distractions and interruptions in the health care environment are major contributors to medical error and low quality of care.
2. Discuss how interruptions in the workplace may lead to staff stress and burnout.
3. Identify ways to reduce work interruptions/distractions in the healthcare environment to improve safety and reduce workplace stress.

In her role as the Director of Quality, Patient Safety, & Child Life at East Tennessee Children's Hospital, Tammy designs, coordinates, implements, maintains, and supervises the quality management department, medical staff credentialing, infection prevention, patient safety program, regulatory compliance, and office of patient experience. She oversees patient complaints, grievances, and surveys including NRC and CAHPS-Child Hospital Survey. Tammy oversees all regulatory agency surveys and visits including, but not limited to, the JC, CMS, TDH, TDEC, CAP, FDA, IRB, & OSHA. She is an expert resource across the organization overseeing complex projects through collaboration, team building, change management, and team training. Responsible for regular updates on quality & safety to the Board of Trustees, Medical Executive Committee, and c-suite executives. Tammy was the recipient of the Tennessee Hospital Association (THA) Patient Safety Leadership Award in 2019. She is also a board member of the Red Cross of East Tennessee Chapter.

“Biomedical Engineering: Communication is Key” presented by Randy Bueckman.

Learning Objectives:

1. Clear concise problem communication.
2. Verify understanding.
3. Attention to Details.
4. More information is always better.

Randy is the Biomedical Manager at East Tennessee Children's Hospital. Randy started his Biomedical career as a BMET 1 and worked up to manager. Medical devices still used vacuum tubes and spark gaps intermixed with new transistor technology at that time. Randy selftaught computers, networking, and programming. He came to ETCH in 1996, where Biomed had two technicians plus myself as manager supporting 3000 medical devices. Today, we have five technicians supporting over 7000 disparate medical devices.

“Patient Experience” presented by Terri Ellis of East Tennessee Children’s Hospital

“Cardiovascular and Pulmonary Rehab 101: What it is and How You Can Help” presented by Andrew B. Sorey MASc, RN, CCRP

Learning Objectives:

1. Discussion of cardiovascular and pulmonary disease burden
2. Overview of Cardiac, Pulmonary, and Vascular Rehabilitation
3. The best part-how you can help!

Andrew Sorey is the Nurse Manager of Cardiovascular and Pulmonary Rehabilitation at The University of Tennessee Medical Center. He received his Nursing degree from the University of Southern Mississippi, his master’s in Population Health Management from Johns Hopkins University, and holds a professional certification through the American Association of Cardiovascular and Pulmonary Rehabilitation. And though he is very tall, he really enjoys miniature golf. More importantly, Andrew finds great joy in helping his team and others grow passionate about the power of cardiovascular and pulmonary rehabilitation.

Education Poster Displays

Posters allow healthcare support team members to share their recent innovations, advances, and discoveries related to their profession or a topic of their expertise. Visit the NAHUC website or contact the NAHUC office for more information.

Conference Hosts

NAHUC is grateful to its conference hosts, East Tennessee Children’s Hospital (ETCH) and the Crowne Plaza Downtown Knoxville.
